

Church Schedules Saturday Bazaar

From everywhere comes the talk of how delicious the turkey was on Thanksgiving Day and many gathered to give thanks with friends and relatives. Mine was no exception for seated at the table were 14 reasons to be extremely grateful. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Adamson, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adamson and daughter Gail, Mrs. Maud Lester, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer and son Kin, and my own husband and sons Jerry, Johnny, Jimmy and Jack, and their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Allison of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Avalos, Mrs. S. B. Gutierrez, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth West shared the festivities with the Herman Cortez family, 17516 Cerise. The Thomas Fannons attended a dinner with Mrs. Fannons' brother, Martin Mandrus, of Pasadena. The Holbrooks spent the day at the home of Mrs. Holbrook's mother in Los Angeles.

The Evangelical United Brethren Alpha Society will hold a ham dinner and bazaar at McMaster Hall, 174th and York, Saturday, Dec. 6, from 5 to 7 p.m. Prices are $1.50, 75 cents and 35 cents for a delicious meal. While you are there, browse around the handicraft, keeping in mind, of course, that Christmas is very near. Aprons and linens of every description will be on display. A postoffice booth will also be in operation for the enjoyment of those who like to buy sight unseen! White elephants and ceramics, many of them planted, will attract much attention. For an evening of entertainment in a different vein going for a most worthy cause (building fund for a new church soon to be erected in this immediate vicinity) drop in at McMaster Saturday.

The North Torrance Elementary PTA room mother chairman assembled at the home of PTA President Mrs. Margaret Jackson, 17032 Della, Nov. 25, to discuss the forthcoming Christmas activities to take place at the school. Room Representative Francis Payne and T. Kelly served the spaghetti luncheon to the ladies present on the patio at President Jackson's home. The buffet was laid in a typical fall harvest theme. The centerpiece was an overturned basket containing the fall fruits and vegetables thus depicting a full harvest. The issues at hand were decided upon and a "round-up" get-together to include the room mothers as well as the chairmen sometime near the end of the term was discussed. Those attending include Mesdames Isaacson, Tardaglia, Ledman, Straube, Pesola, Orr, McCausland, Regan, Davidson, McEee, Black, Ross, Chocamaty, Schirmer, St. Onge, Sale, Overton, Snell, Vandevort, Kelly, Simon, Payne, Jackson, Massey. Also present were Vice Principal Jones and Principal D. Robinson.

The entire area is rooting for Mrs. Dorothy Dallas of 175th St. who will be in the competition for student singers held Dec. 7 at Town Hall in Long Beach, sponsored by the Long Beach Philharmonic. Dorothy will sing Vol Lo Sapeti from the Cavalleria Rusticana. Mrs. Dallas has appeared on numerous programs during the past few years and recently appeared on the television show, Los Angeles County In Action. Associates are hoping she will win the seasonal contract with the Philharmonic which is the grand prize.

The Tawaski troop of the Campfire Girls collected over 200 items of food for the needy in their drive this past week. Leader Grace Breitenfeldt was pleased with the effort made by the girls, and heartily thanks those who donated. The food was equally distributed among several families in the area. In the future the group will meet at the school each Tuesday at 7 o'clock. Plans for a Christmas party are under way and dolls for gifts are being stuffed.

Many a brave heart was tested Nov. 24th when the North Torrance Elementary School children were given booster shots for diphtheria. The Los Angeles County Health Department, aided by the North Torrance Elementary PTA, inoculated 503 boys and girls. Very few tears were reported!

Perry School PTA Room Rep. Mrs. Betty Baile held a meeting Tuesday at the school for all room mother chairmen to determine what Christmas plans are to be made for the children.

This evening the El Nido Parents group will conduct its monthly meeting with Dr. Burke lecturing on Dental Health and the Family, with a question and answer period to follow. The unique idea of a rag and metal drive was a very successful venture and Hebert's second grade won the prize for the most collecting. Due to the tremendous support on the part of all the children of the school, a general prize will be given in the near future, according to President Enid Runsted.

Meet Vera Wright, "Dr. of Oikology!" Mrs. Wright had this title bestowed on her by Al Jarvis and was presented with a diploma when she appeared on his daily show last Friday. After being interviewed and playing the game of ABC, she was given two cases of fruit juice, a certificate to Frank and Joseph's, a fruitcake, tooth brushes, and a beautiful orchid!

The December meeting of Perry Elementary PTA will be held at the school Dec. 11 at 7:30, with President Dean Blake presiding. Rev. Zeller of Evangelical United Brethren Church will be the speaker of the evening, discussing "Unity in the Home." Mr. Bennett's fifth grade pupils will present a Christmas play and the school orchestra and glee club will entertain.

R. Neal Hill of El Camino is presenting his choral group of 60 voices in a most unusual program Dec. 14. The Magnificat, a story in Italian of the birth of Christ, will be heard at the Campus Center. Admission is free and the public is being invited to hear this very different rendition of the Christmas Story.

Girl Scout Troop 1371, under the leadership of Francis Payne, is preparing two baskets of fruit, nuts, and candy to be added to the White Christmas baskets being donated by the students of North Torrance Elementary School for the needy at Christmas. Wreaths of green crepe paper on coat hangers are being made by the group and the Christmas party plans are under way for Dec. 16.

A new Girl Scout troop has been organized and will be headed by Mrs. Margaret Blount and Mrs. Laura Pesola. Troop 1295 boasts 14 girls to start! The girls are making dolls of pipe cleaners to be taken to the wards of the hospital for Christmas. Homemaking badges are to be earned at the weekly meeting held on Wednesday at 3:30 in the home of Mrs. Blount. Those enrolled are Mary Margaret Blount, Diane Holeczek, Janet Graff, Sonja Pesola, Linda Epperson, Karen Kennedy, Laverna Sieber, Linda Wallace, Darlene Aldis, Becky Mayors, Mary Autrey, Arlinda Tellez, and Patty Verburg.

Sonja Pesola of 17030 Faye-smith celebrated her 11th birthday Nov. 20th by inviting 20 guests over for a party. Party games were played with the grand prize being won by Linda Epperson. Cake and ice cream was served to the many friends that Sonja has acquired since moving into the area last June.

Visiting at the Jack White home, 4308 W. 178th Pl. over Thanksgiving holidays was Jack's mother, Mrs. Bessie A. White, and sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Rutherford, of Oakland.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brewer entertained Mrs. Brewer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Pollock of Lelmert Park, Mr. Edwin Pollock and fiancée, Marilyn Dennis, grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Lentz and Mrs. Kathryn Johnson in honor of Mrs. Pollock's birthday Nov. 29. Nov. 30 the Brewers also celebrated their 12th anniversary. Congratulations!

Congratulations to the William Stepps of Atkinson on the birth of a new daughter named Becky! The Stepps have two other girls, Beverly and Gloria.

Happy birthday to Larry Wilson, 18245 Roslin, who celebrated his eighth birthday Nov. 25 with a small party. Those invited were Micky May, Jim May, Marsha May, Jimmy Ulmer, and Wayne Wright.

Hope this edition finds Florence and Sharon Weiner much improved over their bout with the flu; also Cecil Davis, of 18831 Roslin.

Warrior Eleven To Be Guests At AL Dinner

Members of the Metropolitan Conference powerhouse team of the year, the El Camino College Warriors, will be guests of the Sixth Annual Football dinner of Redondo Beach Post 184 of the American Legion on Dec. 12.

Ed Zuchelli, chairman of the event, said nationally-known sports figures would also attend as guests and as speakers. Head Coach Norm Verry, his coaching staff, and his crew of pigskin specialists, and college officials will be the honored guests of the evening, Zuchelli said.

League play for the Warriors was climaxed Thanksgiving Day with the final tilt of the season and the battle between El Camino College and East Los Angeles Junior College for the league title. El Camino won the league championship with its no loss, no tie record.
